1. Introduction

Dear Athletes, Parents and Club Coaches,

State Squad training has commenced and some of you may be wondering whether or not you or your athletes are eligible to join the 2007 State Team. The NSW Selection Criteria 2007 document (posted on Judo NSW website) will provide you with selection requirements for the 2007 State Team.

The Basic elements of the selection criterion

- Following from last years very successful Technical Skills Development Session, this years session (24 March) is compulsory for all athletes intending to nominate for the NSW State Team.
- Participation in at least 2 of the 3 selections in the weight and age category chosen to participate in the Nationals.
- Participation in the NSW Training Camp to be held on the 28 and 29 April at Illawara.
- Participation at a minimum of 75% of the total state squad sessions.
- This is a basic description of the selection criteria. Please refer to the document entitled 2007 State Squad Selection Criteria which can be found on the NSW Judo web site for details concerning injuries, medical conditions, distance and other factors that may impact on an athlete's ability to meet the selection criteria.

What do you need to do now?

Read this information carefully. If you intend to be part of the 2007 NSW State Team, you must complete the 2007 State Team Nomination Form. This should be given to the State Coaching Coordinator, Team Managers or sent to the NSW Judo Office by 12 March. Athletes who do not submit this form by the due date will not be included in the NSW State Squad.

The 2007 State Team Nomination Form will be used to generate individual invoices, order team uniforms and administer travel/accommodation arrangements.
